PROCLAMATION

Several cases of damages inflicted upon military installations and equipment, serving the defense of the country, induce me to state that even the removal of insignificant objects (as wooden poles and iron parts) constitutes an injury to military installations.

The intentional damaging of military equipment and installations of the German army will be sentenced by death in pursuant to the decree concerning the combatting of violence in the General Government dated 31 October 1939.

I reserve the right to arrest hostages from communities located in the territory where the crimes take place in all those cases when the culprit is not found.

Warsaw,.....of May 1941

THE DISTRICT CHIEF IN WARSAW

(signed) Dr. Fischer

Governor

I, E. M. Witt, hereby certify that I am thoroughly conversant with the English and German languages and that the above is a true and correct translation.
